

Excursion Day: Lunigiana, land of a hundred castles

8 July 2016

7.30 a.m. Departure from Milan: Piazza Duca D'Aosta (close to Hotel Gallia).
We kindly recommend you to arrive at least 30 minutes in advance.

10.30 a.m. Arrival in Pontremoli;

10.30- 11.30 a.m. Visit of the historic city center with a local expert;

11.30- 12-30 a.m. Visit of the Castello di Piagnaro Castel and the Museo delle Statue Stele;

12.45 – 2.45 p.m. Lunch Time

a. Trame di Lunigiana's proposals to discover the wine and food excellence of the area:

ICOM Special - Visit of the didactic garden in cooperation with Slow Food and typical lunch with cooking demonstration with "Testi" at the foot of Piagnaro Castle in a typical atmosphere.

Reservation is required.

Visit, demonstration and lunch: €20. Reservations expire on Monday 4th July. In case of rain the event will be canceled.

- b. As an alternative, it is possible to have lunch in an agreed restaurant in the historical center of Pontremoli: lunch with typical products €18. Reservation is recommended.
Osteria della Bietola or Trattoria Da Bussè.

2.45 p.m. Departure from Pontremoli;

3.30 p.m. Visit of Castiglione del Terziere Castle and the library;

5.30 p.m. Departure from Castiglione del Terziere;

5.45 p.m. Quick Stop in Bagnone;

6.00 p.m. Departure to Milano: Piazza Duca D'Aosta (30 meters from Hotel Gallia)

8.30 p.m. expected arrival in Milano

Participants' costs:

- lunch
- it is well-accept a donation to the association Omnia Vanitas – Amici di Loris Jacopo Bonomi, that safeguards the Castiglione del Terziere Castle, and preserves and highlights the historical, artistic and literary work of Professor Loris Jacopo Bonomi.

For more information and reservation booking@tramedilunigiana.it and +39 3938300643