

fondazione italiana accenture

Antonella Aureli

Management Consulting Director

Antonella Aureli has a deep knowledge of Capital Markets Industry, in terms of business, processes and IT applications, regarding Investment Banking and Wealth and Asset Management areas.

Aureli has been responsible of big transformation programs in several Italian banking groups, for Corporate and Investment Banking Division. During her career she developed specific skills in managing IT procedures for Wealth and Asset Management companies. Aureli is now leading the Capital Markets Industry at Accenture, handling value proposition and offerings for our clients in Financial Markets and managing our related skills and capabilities.

Aureli holds a Engineering Degree at La Sapienza University of Rome and a specialization at MIP - Politecnico of Milan.